CHAPTER- I

SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION

A BRIEF PROFILE

Distance Education is a well tried modern method of Education. Distance Education permits greater flexibility and it is learner - centered.

The School of Distance Education, formerly School of Correspondence Courses of Andhra University was established on 1st July, 1972 with the objective of increasing the access of higher education to disadvantaged sections of the society. Initially B.A., and B.Com., courses were offered with the assistance of UGC. Liberalised admission into B.A., / B.Com., courses under open system was introduced in 1976.

M.A. (Economics) and M.Com. courses were started in the year 1978-79 with the assistance of the University Grants Commission. Later B.Ed. and M.Ed. courses were added during 1980-81 and 1982-83 respectively.

M.A. (English), M.A. (Public Administration), Post-Graduate Diploma in Co-operation and Rural Studies and B.Sc. courses were introduced from the academic year 1983-84.

The School has also started non-conventional one year P.G. Diploma Courses in Translation, Environmental Studies and Functional English, from the year 1989.

Besides these courses, the School introduced the following M.A. courses, from the academic year 1989-90.

The School introduced the following courses w.e.f the Academic Year 1997-98.

1. P.G.Diploma in Personnel Management & Industrial Relations (H.R.M)

2. P.G.Diploma in Voluntary Welfare Organisations / Management of Voluntary Organisations (MVO)

3. P.G.Diploma in Travel & Tourism Management.

M.A./M.Sc. in Mathematics and P.G. Diploma in Computer Programming and Applications (PGDCPA) were offered from the year 2000-2001 and 3 certificate courses in computers were offered from 2002-03.

M.A. (Education) and M.L.I.Sc. are offered from 2003-04 onwards.

During the Academic Year 2005 L.LM, M.Sc in Botany, Zoology, Physics and Organic Chemistry, B.E/B.Tech in Civil, Electrical, Electronics, Mechanical and Chemical Engineering branches were introduced. Further during the Academic Year 2006, MCA, MBA (Executive) and MHRM Courses were Introduced. PG Diploma in Public Interest and PG Diploma in Digital Governance are introduced during the calendar year 2010.

The School of Distance Education is run by skilled teachers and educational administrators who always strive to reach high academic standards. A student who is enrolled into this School studies the same syllabi, and is awarded the same degree as in the case of regular students of this University.
The core academic staff of the School will carry on the academic activities with the help of the well experienced teachers in their respective fields, who are working in this University as well as in other Universities.

Print material is the main stay of instruction supplemented by Week-end classes and Annual Personal Contact programme classes at various centres to facilitate face to face interaction between the teachers and students. The School invites well experienced teachers to participate in these Personal Contact Programmes besides our academic staff. During these programmes the teachers will give an extensive review of the subjects and clarify the doubts of the students. Besides Visakhapatnam, the School is organizing Personal Contact Programme classes. Week-end classes at the following places depending upon student enrolment:

1. Srikakulam
2. Kakinada
3. Rajahmundry
4. Eluru
5. Bhimavaram
6. Narsapur
7. Guntur
8. Hyderabad
9. Vizianagaram
10. Nellore
11. Ongole

The schedule of the centres and subjects offered will be sent to the students.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Any qualified candidate within India can apply for admission into the School of Distance Education. Admission is restricted to the candidates residing in India.

2. Transfer Certificate and Migration Certificate need not be submitted for admission.

3. Candidates who passed the higher examination should not apply for lower examination.

4. Candidates after graduating from the School of Distance Education are eligible for higher studies as in the case of regular students.

5. After enrolment, every student will be allotted a code number, which he/she should invariably mention in all his/her correspondence with the School. Full Code Number including the period of study should be quoted in all the correspondence. Correspondence without code number will not receive attention.

6. The student will be admitted into the School on the assumption that the entries in the Admission Application are correct and the student has to fulfil all the requirements as mentioned in the application.

   The Original certificates of the students submitted along with the admission application form will be returned to the students by the Registered Post as soon as the admission formalities are over. However such of the original certificates which are required for the record of the school will be retained and they will not be returned.

   The first of July is treated as the day of commencement of the academic year.

7. The candidates are required to abide by the rules and regulations that are in force and those that will come into effect from time to time as formulated by the school and/or by the University.

8. Guidelines for answering assignments

1. Assignments constitute the continuous evaluation which carry a weightage of 15 percent in each paper except in the case of M.Com. where it is 30 per cent. There will be one assignment for each paper in a course. The candidates should answer compulsorily all the assignments for all subjects.

2. The main purpose of the assignment is to test the student’s comprehension of the course material sent to him/her and also to help him/her in getting through the courses. The information given in the printed course material should be sufficient for answering the assignments. The answers should be complete in all respects. Incomplete answers bring poor marks. The assignments are to be submitted to School of Distance Education, Andhra University before the due date. It is desirable that the student should retain a copy of all assignment responses which he/she submits.
