A special feature on the new campus of the University of Andhra Pradesh

Y. T. Balakrishna, President

The establishment of the new campus for the University of Andhra Pradesh is a momentous occasion in the history of the state. The university has been a beacon of knowledge for generations, and this new campus will undoubtedly serve as a catalyst for the growth of higher education in the region. The campus is not just a physical structure but a symbol of the university's commitment to excellence in teaching and research.

The campus is designed to be an exemplary model of modern educational infrastructure. It features state-of-the-art facilities, including laboratories, classrooms, and administrative offices. The green campus design ensures a healthy and sustainable learning environment. The campus is also equipped with modern amenities to cater to the needs of the students and faculty.

The opening ceremony was attended by a host of dignitaries, including the Governor, the Chief Minister, and other members of the state government. The ceremony was marked by speeches, musical performances, and a cultural programme. The students and faculty were thrilled to be part of this historic event.

The establishment of the new campus is a significant milestone for the university. It will enable the university to expand its reach and offer more programs to students. The university has plans to attract students from all over the country and even abroad.

The campus is envisioned as a hub of academic excellence and a source of inspiration for future generations. It is a testament to the university's dedication to excellence and its commitment to the betterment of society.

A. P. J. Abdul Kalam, President of India

The establishment of the new campus of the University of Andhra Pradesh is indeed a welcome development. The university is well known for its contributions to the field of education and research. The new campus will provide a conducive environment for the growth of knowledge and the development of future leaders.

Education is the foundation of any society, and the University of Andhra Pradesh has been playing a pivotal role in shaping the minds of generations. The university's contribution to the state's socio-economic development cannot be overstated.

The new campus is a modern facility that will provide world-class education to students. It is equipped with state-of-the-art facilities and resources to facilitate the learning process. The campus is designed to be an inspiration for students and faculty alike.

The university's motto, "Knowledge is Power," is vividly reflected in the establishment of this new campus. It is a symbol of the university's commitment to excellence and innovation.

The establishment of the new campus is a significant step forward in the development of higher education in the state. It will undoubtedly contribute to the growth of the state's economy and society as a whole.

A. V. Ramana, Governor of Andhra Pradesh

The establishment of the new campus for the University of Andhra Pradesh is a matter of pride for the state. The university has been a beacon of knowledge for centuries, and the new campus will undoubtedly enhance its reputation.

The campus is designed to be a model of modern educational infrastructure. It is equipped with state-of-the-art facilities, including laboratories, classrooms, and administrative offices. The green campus design ensures a healthy and sustainable learning environment.

The opening ceremony was a highlight of the event. The Governor, the Chief Minister, and other members of the state government were present, along with representatives from various institutions and organizations.

The campus is envisioned as a hub of academic excellence and a source of inspiration for future generations. It is a testament to the university's dedication to excellence and its commitment to the betterment of society.

The establishment of the new campus is a significant milestone for the university. It will enable the university to expand its reach and offer more programs to students. The university has plans to attract students from all over the country and even abroad.

The campus is a symbol of the university's commitment to the betterment of society. It is a reminder of the university's contribution to the state's socio-economic development and its role in shaping the future of the country.

A. K. Patnaik, Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh

The establishment of the new campus of the University of Andhra Pradesh is a significant development for the state. The university is a symbol of the state's commitment to education and research.

The new campus is a symbol of the university's dedication to excellence. It is a modern facility that will provide world-class education to students. The campus is equipped with state-of-the-art facilities and resources to facilitate the learning process.

The campus is designed to be a hub of academic excellence and a source of inspiration for future generations. It is a testament to the university's commitment to the betterment of society.

The establishment of the new campus is a significant step forward in the development of higher education in the state. It will undoubtedly contribute to the growth of the state's economy and society as a whole.

The new campus is a symbol of the university's contribution to the state's socio-economic development. It is a reminder of the university's role in shaping the future of the country.